

Araf (Inequality) by Thomas Snyder

Rules: Variation of Araf Rules. Divide the grid into some regions formed of edge-adjacent squares. Each cell is part of one region, and each region should contain exactly two given numbers, one in a yellow circle ( $>$ ) and one in a red circle ( $<$ ). Each region must have an area that is strictly between the two inequality values.

Growing Up