

A Story of Self-setting Sudoku #4.5 by Thomas Snyder

Nothing to worry about; some minor issues before we can show off our full self-setting technology. We're being warned that the flagged number is causing a disturbance that puts our powerful AI at risk. Still, we have new hope that we have eliminated all weak spots in our GPU core. No more big explosions today.

Given our rate of progress, we'll show off "Full Setting Automation" by tomorrow!
