

[SUGGEST A TITLE] by Dr. Sudoku

While the GMP team is on a retreat(,?) figuring out what it might mean to be going from the sublime to the ridiculous, we're creating prompts to send to our AI.

Dr. Sudoku: While you are now a great sudoku creator, please look back at your early days and the founding of this project. You are celebrating a birthday and learning a new language with some help. You desperately want to impress your intelligent father (with the name 123456789), who is a busy man -- a banker? -- who would adore Sudoku if he had time. Make a puzzle to showcase your learnings to him. To impress him the most, hide a secret AI name origin story in a manner still appropriate to the source.
